PROBATION AGREEMENT DEFERRING JUDGMENT
(Criminal Procedure Article § 6-220)

I, _____, do not admit to the facts offered by the State and enter a plea of not Name
guilty, but consent to a probation before judgment in exchange for the court expressly withholding a finding of guilt for the following charge(s):

The terms and conditions of the probation are in the attached order.

The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to a trial.

The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to appeal the probation agreement.

The defendant understands that violation of the terms of the probation agreement may result in the Court finding the defendant guilty of the underlying crime(s); and, on a finding of guilt, the Court may sentence the defendant up to the maximum penalty for the underlying crime(s).

FINDINGS:

- State consents to a probation before judgment.
- The agreement is in the best interests of the defendant, and public welfare will be served.
- There are sufficient facts to support a finding of guilt but the Court does not do so, and instead defers entry of conviction and places the defendant on probation before judgment.
